

Can bounded evidence updates withstand noisy observations?

Lower Brier error means better probability predictions of the simulated state.

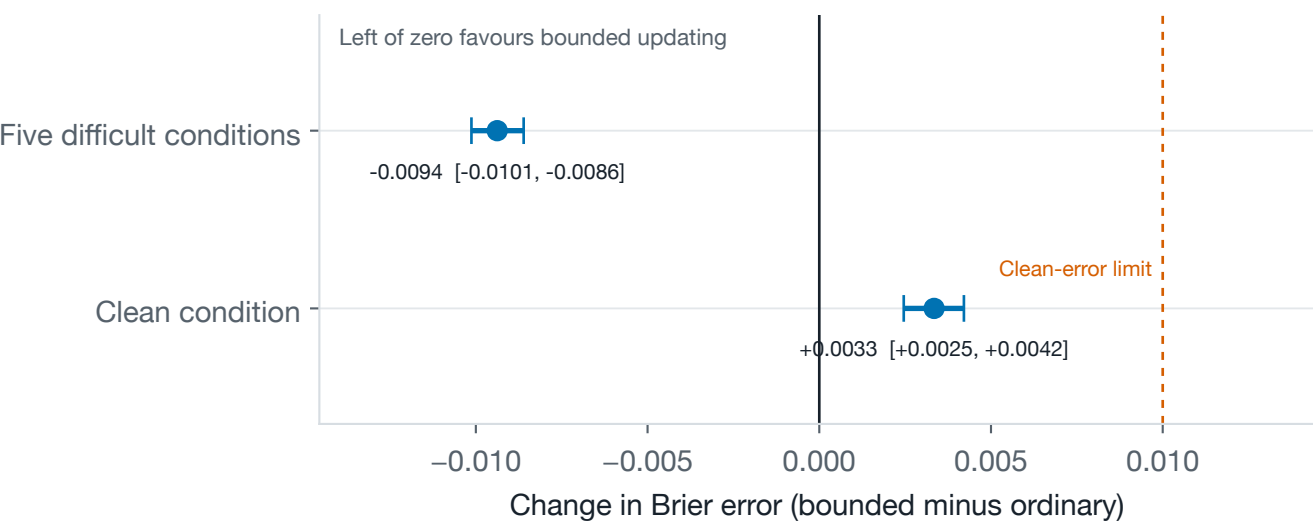

500 paired episodes per condition. Both trackers received the same hidden states and observations.

The result met the declared evaluation rule.

A. Probability error by evidence condition

B. Prespecified paired comparisons

The result concerns the specified simulator.
It does not measure student learning or tutoring effectiveness.

Both trackers were fixed before the evaluation run.